(NEW YORK, NY) Indiewood/Hollywoodn't is a niche online publication devoted to covering the independent film scene in New York City and beyond! Our team of well connected and insightful bloggers are out and about on the streets of New York digging up all the latest scoops in indie film news, reviews, festival coverage and more. We understand filmmakers because WE ARE filmmakers - writers, directors, producers and editors with a passion for filmmaking and a love of independent cinema. While other indie film sites fall victim to a lack of specificity in their vision, we concentrate our efforts right here in New York City first and foremost. After all, who better to cover the richness of the New York City film scene better than native New York City filmmakers.

Indiewood/Hollywoodn't is a place for filmmakers, industry professionals and film enthusiasts alike. We strive to connect audiences with quality work from local filmmakers. We are a resource for industry professionals seeking information on the latest technologies, as well as cost-effective solutions for their individual filmmaking needs. Film enthusiasts will find us to be a preeminent destination for discovering new content, up to the minute film news and all the places to find those hard to find titles.
